

GRUPPO DEGENNARO

DEC SpA is the most famous and important group from the Apulia that made its first steps in the immediate postwar period through the active and intelligent of its founder, Cavaliere di Gran Croce Emanuele Degennaro.

Since the beginning of the sixties the activity was carried out in many important programs and residential housing, then under a program of diversification of its activities, the Group has invested in the sector of public works and services and it is in these areas, thanks to the consolidation of the activities operated by the sons of the founder, that DEC has earned a place in the first team of Italian construction companies.

Continuity, tradition and commitment have been constant over the years the strengths on which was based the growth of the Group until the concrete affirmation both national and international level.

Today, DEC is synonymous with extensive experience in construction, high specialization and high standards in the implementation of various building types.

Emanuele Degennaro was the founder of the Group after the war.

The core business of those years was mainly accounted for by major construction of residential housing.

In the early '70s, as part of a process of diversification of its activities, the Group took place in the market for public works and services, giving priority to the tourism and hotel.

The Group is currently led by the founder's sons who continue to consolidate their activities, both in Italy and abroad with more than flattering results.

DEC SpA was established in December 2000 with a division of Group companies, the Dinvest SpA.

Following the demerger, the Dinvest transferred to DEC SpA the entire class in general construction.

The company operates primarily in the area of procurement in the field of public works and shall ensure the implementation of all interventions that are planned by the Group in real estate and hotel and tourism.
